

STOCKING FILLERS

1. Premier Licensing

Football accessories from £4.99

With licences for some of the biggest clubs in Europe, including Manchester United, Chelsea and Barcelona, Premier Licensing's products include subtle scorecard holders (£9.99), casino ball-markers (£5.99), headcovers (£16.99) and Aqua-Lock golf towels (£16.99). Products feature official club crests. premier-licensing.com

2. Golf Monthly

Magazine subscription £45.99

Get a year's worth of Golf Monthly magazines delivered direct to a friend or loved one for only £45.99. As well as a limited-edition cover every month, and exclusive reader offers, you will also receive a dozen Bridgestone Tour B330-RX golf balls to pass on as part of your gift or keep for yourself. magazinesdirect.com/ilc2

3. Bioflow

Sport Twin wristband £34.99

A powerful magnet inside the wristband, which is worn by the likes of Lee Westwood and Paul Lawrie, is designed to improve circulation and ensure that oxygen-carrying red cells and healing white cells reach all parts of the body and improve the immune system. Delivery is free on orders up until the end of 2012. bioflowsport.com

4. GolfBand

Training aid from £9.98

These exercise bands can be used at home or on the range for strength and conditioning training, as a warm-up or to improve flexibility. They can also aid your swing development and improve arm-to-body connection and lower-body stability. Golf Monthly readers can claim free delivery by quoting 'GMXMAS' at checkout. golfband.co.uk

5. PGA Tour

Putting mat £20

A putting mat can be a fun addition to any home or office, while also helping to groove a more consistent stroke. This six-foot PGA Tour version comes with a flag, as well as an imitation bunker and water hazard to test the quality of your stroke. The slight incline will help challenge your distance control, too. menkind.co.uk

6. Titleist

Personalised golf balls from £21

If you're struggling for gift ideas, golf balls are always a winner. You can make it special by using this free customisation offer from Titleist. This can be done on any Titleist ball from the range and can be ordered at any stockist. The deadline for pre-Christmas orders is December 10. titleist.co.uk